To:

To whom it may concern:

I am reaching out to your company with an unconventional request. My name is Casey Lewis and I've been a lifelong customer of [REDACTED] in [REDACTED]. I grew up nearby in [REDACTED]. I also obtained my scuba certification through [REDACTED] in 2014.

I am currently managing a large fundraiser as a candidate in the Leukemia & Lymphoma Society's Man & Woman of the Year campaign. My team of volunteers set a goal of raising $81,000 for the mission of LLS by June 18, 2021. We are halfway through the campaign and still have a ways to go, so we are working on a push for some more creative ways to gather donations.

One of the major ways for my team to make an impact is through business partnership. This is an opportunity for businesses to help bring crucial awareness to the lifesaving mission of the Leukemia & Lymphoma Society.

[REDACTED] popped into my head as an organization that might be interested and able to help because they have always been a community oriented company. If you would be interested in learning more about this opportunity, I would be happy to schedule a video meeting or conference call with me and a representative from LLS to discuss potential sponsorship opportunities.

Thank you for taking the time to consider, and I look forward to hearing from you. You can read my personal mission for participating at my fundraising page here: <https://pages.lls.org/mwoy/calso/los21/clewis>

All my best,

Casey Lewis
